SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this Judgment and that remains unpaid at the time of supervised release, or during the term of probation.

Defendant shall participate as directed and approved by the probation officer in an evaluation and treatment, if recommended, for narcotic addiction, drug dependence, or alcohol dependence, which includes urinalysis or other drug detection measures, not to exceed 52 tests in a one-year period, as directed by the probation officer, and which may require residence and/or participation in a residential treatment facility, or residential reentry center. Any participation will require complete abstinence from all alcoholic beverages. Defendant shall pay for the costs associated with substance abuse counseling and/or testing based on a co-pay sliding fee scale approved by the Probation Office. Co-pay shall never exceed the total costs of counseling.

Defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit of the United States Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. Defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with the Financial Litigation Unit.

Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court ordered financial obligation. Defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.

Defendant shall submit his person, residence, real property, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a search, conducted by the United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
